

Strasbourg.eu
eurometropole

Alliance Migrations

WELCOMING POLICY MEETINGS

Dialogues between European, national and local levels

14 - 16 June 2023 in Strasbourg

5

EXCHANGE SESSIONS

5

HIGHLIGHTS

+40

TERRITORIES

+150

PARTICIPANTS

WEDNESDAY 14 JUNE

19h : GATHERING COCKTAIL

Strasbourg City Hall

THURSDAY 15 JUNE

EUROPEAN MEETING OF THE ALLIANCE MIGRATIONS

Pavillon Joséphine - Parc Orangerie, Strasbourg

8h30 : Coffee reception

9h : Opening words

Jeanne Barseghian, Mayor of Strasbourg, Co-President of ANVITA

Damien Carême, MEP, Co-President of ANVITA, former Mayor of Grande-Synthe

9h30 : What local solutions to national and European difficulties?

Workshops to exchange practices and work on European recommendations

Participants can choose to work on :

Unconditional reception, social support, access to rights
Shelter, accommodation and housing

11h15 : What lessons can be learned from the reception of people from Ukraine?

Putting into perspective the legal access routes to European countries and the distribution keys of people between states, in the framework of the new European Asylum and Immigration Pact.

Lunch

14h : Press conference "Our recommendations for Europe"

The work of more than 150 actors, associations and local and regional authorities in Europe will be compiled in a book of recommendations on the reception of exiled persons in the EU, and will be submitted to the European institutions

15h : Organised visits to reception and accommodation facilities in Strasbourg

In the framework of the Strasbourg Refugee Week:

18h : Apé'rué - La Cloche

19h30 : Refugee portraits with les Défricheurs quai des brumes

20h : Show "Ballade à Nootoos"

FRIDAY 16 JUNE

NATIONAL FORUM OF WELCOMING TERRITORIES

📍 Salle de l'Aubette, Strasbourg

9h : General Assembly of ANVITA

This time is reserved for ANVITA members only.

11h : World café of territories

This time is aimed more at French local authorities and French local and national actors.

Participants can choose to discuss two of the three themes (45 minutes per theme):

Freedom of associations

The carer - cared-for relationship: changing the approach

Asylum and Immigration Bill: explaining and advocating

12h30 : Convivial lunch

Meanwhile, the "For a Welcoming France" 2023 edition guide will be officially launched and distributed to participants

15h : Organised visits to reception and accommodation facilities in Strasbourg

18h : Conference "Welcoming and deconstructing misconceptions about the natural phenomenon of migration".

Open to all

WELCOMING POLICY MEETINGS

To participate :

Please fill the form

For more information :

Feel free to contact us :

ANVITA : Léa Enon-Baron lea.enon-baron@anvita.fr

OCU : Hanaa Rahib h.rahib@o-c-u.org

City of Strasbourg: Elodie Sojic Elodie.SOJIC@strasbourg.eu